Michael McElaney,

Despite our efforts to resolve your past due account, payment on this account has still not been made.

We are informing you that we have run out of patience. This matter has now been turned over to our lawyer in the United States and legal action will be introduced.

Sincerely,

Paul Harrison

Subject: FINAL NOTICE BEFORE LEGAL ACTION
Michael

We have repeatedly advised you of your long overdue balance in the amount of $ 2,162,230. Since you have not made payment we have turned this matter over to our attorney and instructed them to commence suit without further delay.

There is still time, however, to avoid suit if you contact us within the next 3 working days. This will be your final opportunity to resolve matters without the expense of court proceedings.

Sincerely,

Paul Harrison

Subject: NOTICE OF LITIGATION

Mr. Michael McElaney,

All of our efforts to settle this matter amicably have turned out unsuccessful. We have made numerous calls and, to date have not had the courtesy of a call back. We have delayed legal proceedings up to now base on your assurance that we would be paid in full by the end of the month.

Please be advised that you have left us no choice but to file suit against you immediately. Our

Patience has now reached its limit.

This matter is now being handled by our attorney. While I regret the necessity of this action I must advise you to govern yourself accordingly.

Regards,

Harrison,

The reason for this delay is because of the economic situation of the country presently but we promise to have payments sent to your company not later than the 30th of this month.

Please bear with us as we wish to resolve this issue amicably.

Sincerely,

Dear Harrison,

We are deeply sorry for the pain and damage this must have caused your company and we want to assure you that we are going to have your funds refunded since you have cancelled your order.

We were having troubles collecting monies owed to us and therefore caused us to slow down on production, which has resulted to not meeting up with demands.

We assure you that you would have your funds in less than 5 working days.

Thank you for your understanding.

McElaney,

It is more than a week past the delivery time and we still have not gotten the goods we ordered. I must say this is a great disappointment. We are hereby terminating the contract and demand repayment of the 50% down payment that was made by my company to yours. If we do not have funds in 5 working days you would be hearing from our lawyer.
